

PRESS RELEASE

For Release: March 20, 2003
March 27, 2003

For Further Information, Contact:
Angela Thomson, CFP®, 727-8151
Email: athomson@
coastalfinancialplanning.com

South Kingstown, RI: The Financial Planning Association of Rhode Island, in conjunction with RI General Treasurer Paul Tavares, invites you to join them for a free savings and investment workshop. The event will be held on Wednesday, April 2, at the South Kingstown High School, from 6:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m.

Topics to be covered:

- Refinancing your home; Is it too late?
- Investing in uncertain times and what to do with your retirement plan after a job loss.
- Understanding the difference between a will and a trust document.

In addition, members of the Financial Planning Association-RI will be available between 7:30-8:30 pm for free private consultations for interested attendees.

Registration is requested, but not required.

Contact the Treasurer's office at 401.222.2397 for further information or go to www.fpari.com.

The Financial Planning Association of Rhode Island is a non-profit organization of Certified Financial Planner™ practitioners and allied professionals, dedicated to helping the consumer make sound financial decisions.